Training Opportunity: A Case Study Approach to Hazard Analysis for a Food Safety Plan

Location: Regency Room – Second Level

Thursday, April 11, 2019 (1:00pm – 5:30pm)
Friday, April 12, 2019 (8:00am – 12:00pm)

This course will provide a refresher on the preventive control rule and focus on identifying and preventing hazards as well as covering pre-requisite programs. The audience for this training are those who are field inspectors, training field inspectors, or supervising field inspectors as well as those who need to understand this material to write and audit comprehensive procedures. The course is full of case studies and real life examples that are used to demonstrate situations an inspector may face in the field. The course is 8 hours - Thursday afternoon and Friday morning (4/11-12) following the MFRPA meeting in Houston. This training is being sponsored by the Association of Food and Drug Officials (AFDO). Seats are limited so register early to secure a seat.
